CENTENARY OBSERVED BY KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

plants and hundreds of yards of traildenbousch, of Martinsburg, W. Va., grand commander of the Grand Com-mandery of West Virginia.

Three very eminent Knights Tem-plar-Vice-President Thomas R. Mar-shall, of the United States; Grand Mas-ter William B. Melish, of Cincinnati,

O., of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America, and Sover-eign Grand Master James D. Richardson, of Washington, of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of the southern (original) jurisdiction of the United States—who were unable to be present ing vines.

Celebration of Founding of Winchester Commandery Is Notable Occasion.

Response to Tonsta.

Eminent Commander William Ewing Cooper, of Winchester Commandery, acted as tonstmaster, and the following tonsts were responded to: "Winchester Commandery, No. 12, and the Grand Commandery of Virginia," by Right Eminent Grand Commander Alexander Mantz Baker, of Winchester, of the Grand Commandery of Virginia; "Knights Templarism," by Eminent Sir George Craighead Cabell, of Norfolk, grand warden of the Grand Commandery of Virginia, and "The Ladles," by Right Eminent Sir Adrian Collins Nadenbousch, of Martinsburg, W. Va., EMINENT MEMBERS ATTEND

Old Writings, Silver Jewels and Copper Seals Objects of Great Interest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., May 30 .- Large numbers of members of the Knights Tembranch of Freemansonry from various sections of the East, including everal officers of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America, and a personal representative of Grand Master William B. Melish, of Cincin-nati, O., the grand master of the grand nati, O., the grand master of the grand (original) jurisdiction of the United sendampment, gathered to-day in Winchester and joined with Winchester, Commandery, No. 12, K. T., in celebrating the one-hundredth anniversary of the founding of Christian Knighthood in Virginia. No such event has ever before been observed in the old Commonwealth, not even excepting the before been observed in the old Commonwealth, not even excepting the Grand Commandery of Virginia, for the Winchester Commandery was duly and formally instituted ten years before the former body was organized in Richmond.

Winchester Commandery, according Corded Grand Eminent Sir Knight Harry A. Remely, of Baltimore, as his personal representative. The latter was received to-day with all the pomp and ceremony that would have been accorded Grand Master Melish In additional to the corded Grand Eminent Sir Knight Harry A. Remely, of Baltimore, as his personal representative. The latter was received to-day with all the pomp and ceremony that would have been accorded Grand Master Melish In additional to the corded Grand Eminent Sir Knight Harry A. Remely, of Baltimore, as his personal representative.

fore the former body was organized in Richmond.

Winchester Commandery, according to well-preserved documents found in a leaden box in the northeast corner of the old market-house, when that building was razed about twelve years ago to make way for the present City Hall, was founded on May 30, 1813, by the "officers and members of Winchester Grand Encampnient of Sir Knights Templar, No. 1, held in the fields of Winchester, State of Virginia." The order flourished here for many years, and when the Grand Commandery of Virginia was instituted in Richmond in 1823, the Winchester Commandery of Virginia Right Eminent Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Maryland; Grand Recorder Charles A. Nesbitt, of Richmond, of the Grand Commandery of Virginia Right Eminent Grand Commander Of Winchester Commandery of Maryland; Grand Recorder Charles A. Nesbitt, of Richmond, of the Grand Commander of Winchester Commandery of Virginia; Right Eminent Grand Commander Of Winchester Commandery of Winchester Commander of Winchester Commander of Winchester Commander of Winchest Knights Templar." The old writings, silver jewels and copper seals of the first commandery in Virginia are still preserved in glass cases in the hand-somely equipped asylum of the Winchester Commandery, where they were the objects of great interest to-day on the part of visitors from many sister State commanderies and the officers of the Grand Commandery of Virginia; Grand Recorder John H. Miller, of Baltimore, of the Grand Commandery of Maryland; Right Eminent Grand Commander H. K. Simpson, of Washington, of the Grand Commandery of the Grand Commander of the Gran the Grand Encampment of the United States, who gathered there.

Dedicated by Lord Fairfax.

The local commandery has its asylms in the City Hall, which is built on ground dedicated by Thomas Lord Fairfax, Baron of Cameron and proprietor of the Northern Neck of Virginia, who, in a deed, stipulated that members of Stanton of the Grand Inspector R. Bumgardner. fax, Baron of Cameron and proprietor of the Northern Neck of Virginia, who, in a deed, stipulated that members of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was an illustrious patron, should always have a meeting place there, no matter what kind of a building may be erected on the spot. At one time all the local Masonic bodies held their meetings in the old Market House, but in recent years Winchester Hiram Lodge, No. 21, A. F. & A. Masons, which, incidentally, conferred the blue lodge degrees upon President McKinley when he was a major in an Ohio regiment during the Civil War, has since erected a magnificent temple on North Main he was a major in an Ohio regiment during the Civil War, has since erected a magnificent temple on North Main Street, and the Masonic apartments in the present City Hall are now occupied by John Dove Chapter, No. 21, Royal Arch Masons, and the commander of Knights Templar, which to-day commander to the commander of Knights Templar, which to-day Commander R. A. Van Pelt, of Harrison-burg Commander, No. 10, Harrison-burg Commander, No. 10, Harrison-burg Commander, No. 10, Harrison-burg Commander, No. 20, Church Octices The designed and its degree team, clad in the ancient templar costumes, was severed and in the ancient templar costumes, was severed and in the ancient templar costumes, was severed and the severed and the officers and members of the Grand Stip P. M. Work Services at H.A. Mandaley of Virginia at Its annual conclave. All the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commandery of Virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commander virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commander virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Commander virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Va. May 30.—There was a Blue and Gray reunion in the National State of the Commander virginia at Its annual conclave, all the "work" done by Winchester Va. May 30.—There was a Blue and Gray reunion in the National State of the Commander virginia at houses, while some others are being entertained in private homes of their Winchester friends.

Concerts on City Hall Pinza.

From 1 to 1:45 o'clock this aftermon a concert was given in the presence of a great gathering of visiting knights and other people from the cities and towns of the Shenandoah and Cumberland Valleys and of Winchester and vicinity on the City Hall plaza by the Martinsburg (W. Va y City Band, and another concert was given by the Charlestown (W. Va.) City Band, a reception for all the grand officers and visiting commanderles was held in the City Hall until 2 o'clock, shortly after which the largest parnde of Knights Templar ever held in the Shenandoah Valley, if not in the State, was held. In the parade were a platoon of city police, Sir Knight Walter T. Gorc, of Winchester Commandery, mounted as a heard of the content of the pastor, subject. "The Art of Meditation" at $15 P. M. subject. "The Art of Meditation at $15 P. M. subject. "The Art of Meditation at $15 P. M. subject. "The Art of Meditation at $15 P. M. subject. "The Art of Meditation at $15 P. M. subject. "The Art of Meditation at andoah Valley, if not in the State, was held. In the parade were a platoon of city police, Sir Knight Walter T. Gore, of Winehester Commandery, mounted as a herald in ancient templar uniform, the Martinsburg City Band, Winehester Commandery and all visiting commanderies, the Charlestown City Band and automobiles decorated in templar and present officers of the numerous grand commanderies and officers of the grand encampment, together with the banquet speakers.

The nearde were a platoon of is My Neighbor?" Sunday School at $150 P. M. Prayer-meeting Wednesday at $15 P. M. The public, especially strangers, are cordially livited to worship with us.

GROVE AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH (Grove Avenue and Harrison Street).—Rev. W. C. JAMES, Th. D., paster, Preaching at day School at $150 A. M. (James B. Wood, Street). Wednesday evening prayer-meeting the plants of the grand encampment, together with the banquet speakers.

The nearde were a platoon of is My Neighbor?" Sunday School at $150 P. M. (Supt.) However the provide with the second provided to worship with us.

GROVE AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH (Grove Avenue and Harrison Street).—Rev. W. C. JAMES, Th. D., paster, Preaching at day School at $150 P. M. (Supt.) Wednesday evening prayer-meeting the worship with us.

GROVE AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH (Grove Avenue and Harrison Street).—Rev. W. C. JAMES, Th. D., paster, Preaching at day School at $150 P. M. (Supt.) Wednesday evening prayer-meeting wednesday at $150 P. M. The provide with the worship with us.

GROVE AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH (Grove Avenue and Harrison Street).—Rev. W. C. JAMES, Th. D., paster, Preaching at day School at $150 P. M. (Supt.) Wednesday evening prayer-meeting the worship with us.

A. T. Leight Street cars pass the door.

the grand encampment, together with the banquet speakers.

The parade moved through many of the principal business and residential streets, and at a late hour returned to the City Hall, when final arrangements were made for a brilliant banquet, attended only by resident and visiting knights in full uniform and their ladies, which was held to-night in the large dining hall of the Winchester Inn. Covers were laid for about 260 persons. Hundreds of knights who participated in the parade left for their homes on early evening trains and did.

Broad and Twent-Affth Street cars pass the door.

CENTENARY M. E. CHURCH. SOUTH (Grace Street) between Fourth and Fith Preaching at II A. M. and 8:15 P. M. by the pastor, the law of the Shop, day School, with organized classes, at 9:39 and A. M. All seafed Sunday School seafed and Twent-Affth Street cars pass the door. homes on early evening trains and did not remain for the banquet. All the grand officers, however, stayed for the festivities of the night. A reception was held from 7:29 to shortly after 8 o'clock, when the banquet was served in courses. A large orghestra rand olineers, however, stayed for the festivities of the night. A reception was held from 7:30 to shortly after 8 o'clock, when the banquet was served in courses. A large orthestra, under the direction of Professor James Madison Spurr, of Winchester, rendered a program of attractive and appropriate music during the reception and banquet. The lower floor of the hotel was lavishly decorated in Knights Templar colors, cut flowers, tall palms, potted

OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH

THE UNION BANK

OF RICHMOND

1104 EAST MAIN STREET.

$1.00 MAKES A START. 3 PER CENT INTEREST.

ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL

June Victor Records

The new Victor June Records are now on sale. Several of the song "hits" that have been so popular are included on the list, as well as fine operatic selections by famous artists. Caruso, McCormack, Alma Gluck and other favorites have made new records. Harry Lauder has sung one of his new songs, and there's a fine collection of band records.

Come in and hear the June Records.

Walter D. Moses & Co.

Oldest Music House in Virginia and North Carolina.

Short News Stories From All Over Virginia

tures for the government to purchase the property if the Council will agree to its sale, NEW MINISTER INSTALLED.

Rev. H. H. Leach Becomes Pastor of Falling Spring Presbyterian Church.

Lexington, Va., May 30.—On Sunday morning, May 25, at 11 o'clock, Rev. H. H. Leach was installed pastor of the Falling Spring Presbyterian Church in this county. The commission appointed by Montromery Presbytery to conduct the installation service consisted of three ministers, Rev. L. H. Paul, of Clifton Forge; Rev. Bolling Holson, from High Bridge Church, and Rev. A. E. Baker, of Lynchburg, and two eiders, G. W. Effinger, of Falling Spring Church, and John D. Deacon, from High Bridge.

Mr. Leach is a native of West Virginia, a graduate of Washington and Lee, and of Union Theological Seminary in Richmond. At college he distinguished himself as a thorough and appreciative student, a good friend and companion, a commencement orator of Graham-Lee Literary Society in 1995, and a member of the Masonic fraternity.

At the seminary his record was equally as good, and his professors considered him a very promising young minister. Mr. Leach was leensed by Lexington Presbytery and was examined for ordination at Radford in Montgomery Presbytery.

Short News Stories From All Over Virginia

SITE PROPOSED FOR POST-OFFICE.
Convention Hall Committeenen Have New Project for Civic Centre.

Norfolk, Va., May 20.—A project is now in the making to sell the property bounded by Hall Avenue, Washington and Brewer Streets to the government of property bounded by Hall Avenue, Washington and Brewer Streets to the government of property by the committee having this work in Members of the convention hall with the property by the committee having this work in Members of the convention hall committee having this work in Members of the convention hall which also included an armory and market building. This will be not of the mask imposing buildings in the last of the convention hall, which also included an armory and market building. This will be one of the most imposing buildings in the last of the convention hall, which also included an armory and market building. This will be one of the mest imposing buildings in the last of the convention hall, which also included an armory and market building. This will be not be the convention hall, which also included an armory and market building. This will be not be the convention hall, which also included an armory and market building. This will be not be provided freproof, sanitary and modern government of a public and modern government and the public and the Ladies' National Members of the Curity of the Republic, and the Ladies' National Members of the Curity of the Republic and the Ladies' National Members of the Curity of Haymad by Colone Ball in mountail Association. The rounds were constituted to the County of the Republic and the Ladies' National Association. The county will am county who rested in habout twenty will am County, who served in the Eighth Virginia Merchell, who rested the Middle Mounts of the Curity of the Mounts of the Curity of t

James T. Catlin, vice-president, and B. V. Booth, treasurer.

The board received the draft of the application for charter, which will have to be forwarded to the State Corporation Commission for approval. A constitution was also submitted, and after immaterial amendment was approved by the board, but must be submitted to a general meeting of the stockholders or members before final adoption. It was decided that for the present the organization will be known as the Carlton Club, though it is possible that another name may be adopted later.

WILL WELCOME BRAZILIAN.

Dr. Laure Muller, Special Ambassador, Expected to Arrive in Roads Soon.

Nortolk, Va., May 30—Distinguished officials, including several Cabinet officers, will come to Hampton Roads to meet the Braxilian battleship Minas Gereas, bound here with Dr. Laure Muller, the special ambassador, who comes to the United States to return the visit paid to his country by then Secretary of State Elling Root in 1995.

The Atlantic battleship feet will assemble in the Roads to welcome the Brazilian, and Rear-Admiral Charles Badger, commandant of the fleet. Is making arrangements for a spiendid reception.

The receiving party will include the Sections of War, the Section of Son Section 1995.

WOMEN SAVE BURNING HOUSE.

Wendel nileges that in 1629 King Carl XI, of Sweden conferred nobility upon one of his ancestors and, in token of the honor, presented the recipient with a printed parchment, crest and other insignia of knighthood, with the assurance that the right to title crest and coat of arms descended forever through the eldest male representative of the family.

Wendel is the eldest son of Carl Christian Wendel, who died at Rockport last Friday; possessed of this patent. He claims that the reprodent has taken possession of his proofs of knighthood, and he asks the court to order her to deliver them to him. A temporary injunction was granted, returnable June 72.

WOMEN SAVE BURNING HOUSE.

VETERAN OF ALL ARMY MULES.

Could Kick to Kill After the War, and Has Just Expired.

Indiana, Pa., May 35.—A union army mule, which kicked and nearly Rilled a man at a sale in this place shortly after the Civil War, has just died at the farm of Liveryman Uber, of Homer City. It was one of a number brought to the old State experiment farm, near this place, in the summer of 1865, for public sale. While James Forsha was examining the animal it kicked and almost fatally injured him.

The mule was ln active service until a short time before its death.

COP FACES LESE MAJESTE.

Turn From Festivities to Forestall the Sum- On Trial Charged With Calling Mayor a moned Firemen. Furn From Festivities to Forestall the Summoned Firemen.

Wilmington Del., May 39.—Just as the guests were arriving at the home of Dr. Itead J. McKay, in South Broome Street, to attend a tea and private sale of caites and marmalades. made by his daughter, Miss Reba McKay, fire was discovered in the house. Turning from the dainties the women hastily formed a bucket brigade and succeeded in extinguishing the flames by the X and a second s To-Morrow's Ad.

Is worth reading (in our opinion).

We invite prudent men to look for it-hoping that the suggestion made will appeal to their good judg-

There is not a line in it, however, that will be of interest to a spendthrift!

Virginia Trust Co.

"The Safe Executor," 1106 East Main Street,

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

Capital One Million

while talking about the street car e. said he believed that the Mayor be a pin-head, otherwise he would not become involved in the trouble he did with it.

The officer testified that he had said nothing of the sort, and the safety director took the case under advisement. Officer Aufdembring in the meantime is suspended from duty.

ARIZONA WOMEN TRY TO VOTING.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 30.—For the first time since they were given the franchise in Arizana. Women in Phoenix and Maricopa. County generally took part yesterday in an election of consequence by voting on the wet and dry" question.

Because of educational qualifications, few women and men of Maxican origin appeared at the polis. Liquor Question Gives First Test in Two

PARDONS MEDICINE TAKER. use of 120 Quarts of Whiskey in 153

Days on Reservation Suspected.
Washington, May 39.—Edward Lamereaux, a gray-haired man of eighty years and in poor health, convicted at Butte, Mont., of introducing liquor on the Flathead Indian reservation, will not have to go to jail for his offense.

On representation that imprisonment might shorten the life of the feeble man. President Wilson commuted his sentence of ninety days and a fine of $359 and costs to the fine and costs.

and costs.

Lamercaux, for thirty-sight years a farmer and stockman on the reservation, contended that all of the 120 quarts of whiskey introduced into his home between May and November, 1912—153 days—was consumed by him for medicinal purposes.

There was no evidence to show he had "treated" any one cise.

SUIT ROBBERY TO TRIAL.

State Attorney's Purse Stolen as He Prose cutes Pickpockets. Chicago, May 20.—While Assistant State's Attorney Bell was prosecuting two alleged pickpockets in Judge Burke's court he was robbed of his pocketbook, containing $15.

The lawyer discovered his loss while at luncheon. When he returned to court he found the purse, empty, lying on a table.

RUNAWAY SAVES FROM MIRE.

Man, Hurled Into Oozy Marsh, Is Strangely Bauled Out. Hauled Out.

Pottstown, Pa., May 30.—A runaway horse probably saved the life of Frank Bowman, of Stowe. With his brother William, he was driving on an embankment, and the animal plunged over, throwing the young men into the marshland.

Frank was thrown into several feet of soft mud and water; sinking and holding on to the lines, he was pulled to a place of safety by the frightened animal.

BOYDTON HIGH SCHOOL CLOSES.

Exercises Also in Celebration of and Modern Building. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Boydton, Va., May 30.—Friday night te citizens of Boydton assembled in the town hall to witness the closing exercise of the Boydton High School and also to celebrate the completion of the new and modern brick schoolhouse that has been in course of erection during the winter and spring months. The occasion was one of great pleasure and rejolcing for the patrons of the school who have realized that for several years the work of both teachers and pupils has been handicapped in a most serious manner by a lack of proper facilities. This the new building, which is handsome outdoor sports, is well adapted in every respect for educational work, for the evening's entertainment, was how much care the children had been

The Rev. Charles Sydnor made a short and appropriate address, which was followed by a little play in two acts, "The Uninvited Member," given by the girls of the high school who besides rendering the play in a very creditable manner, had a dainty stage setting for it. One of the most en the little pantomime "A frog who would of the primary department.

The musical numbers of the evening Faulkner, Jr., singing the music for his usual good style, accompanied by program Frank Bedinger, superinten-

Texas; Merey, Wisconsin; M. Thomp-son, Alabama; V. Thompson, Alabama, Literary-Misses Bateman, Minnesota; Mahlum, Minnesota; Ragan, Tennessee; Sheffer, Texas; Sterne, Georgia. cutlook of the institution is

wery bright, being altogether, per-haps, in the best condition in its his-tory. The number of entrances for the coming session is largely in excess of what they were at this time last year, and the applications are from 50 to 100 per cent greater.

CLASS OF EIGHT GRADUATES.

Commencement Exercises at Donaldson

Military School,
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fayetteville, N. C., May 30.—Dr. R.
C. Reed, of Columbia, S. C., delivered the commencement address to the graduating class of the Donaldson Military School on Tuesday afternoon. The exercises were brief. Headmas-

Financial

Financial

EXPERIENCE AND ABILITY

What is needed in the management of your affairs.

This company is peculiarly well qualified to serve you.

OLD · DOMINION TRUST · COMPANY. THE STEORIGEST TRUST COMPANY IN THE SOUTH ATLANTIC STATES

The Business Man's Bank Should Be 'Strictly Commercial." Why Not Inform Yourself About the Service We Offer.

Small Depositors

WHITE STATES AND STATES OF THE STATES OF THE

WANTED at this bank. Accounts opened with ONE DOLLAR and upwards. We take pride in serving our smallest depositors with the same courtesy and efficiency as our largest. YOUR ACCOUNT is not too small to command our attention and appre

Loans Made on Real Estate and Approved Colinteral.

Bank of Commerce & Trusts 3% on Savings Deposits STREET, STREET

7% and 8% for Your Money

lend it for you at 7 per cent and 8 per cent, secured by real estate worth two for one. Best references in Richmond and throughout Virginia

Fulton Investment Company,

1201-2-8-4-5-6-7 Atlanta National Bank Building, - - - - Atlanta, Ga. Charles D. McKinney, Pres.; Green, Tilson & McKinney, Attorneys.

MARKETS.

COTTON MARKETS.

dont of schools, made the closing address, at the same time presenting on behalf of the little children of the primary department a gift of three beautiful pictures to be hung in their class room at the opening of the new schoolhouse fext September.

The poet Longfellow, his house in old Cambridge, and "The Village Blacksmith" were the pictures chosen.

ENDS SUCCESSFUL SESSION.

Southern Seminary Now in Best Condition in Its History.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Buena Vista, Va., May 30.—The Southern Seminary closed its forty-seventh session this week under unusually happy and auspicious circumstances. The session has been one of the most satisfactory in the long history of the institution. Following is a list of the graduates:

Domestic science—Misses Blackwell, New Jersey; Giffin, Ohio; H. Jageman, Illinois; Mahlum, Minnesota; Morrison, Tennessee; Rose, New Jersey; V. Thompson. Alabama. Music—Misses Johnstone, Kansas; Mincks, Ohlo; Willis, Virginia; M. Jageman, Illinois; Sluss, Virginia, English—Misses Hyde, Canada; Norcross, Oregon. Art—Miss Chick, Nebraska, College entrance—Misses Bateman, Minnesota; Branum, Texas; Merey, Wisconsin; M. Thompson Alabama, V. Thomp

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET.

New York, May 29.—Beeves—Steers, fat bulls and fat cows, 15@25c, lower; others about stendy. Steers, $6@8.00; bulls, $597.75; cows, $4@6.55. Calves—Weak, Veals, $8.50@11.40; a few at $11.50; culls, $6.50@8.50. Sheep and Lambs—Weak, Sheep, $3.75@6.75; culls, $2@3.50; lambs, $6@7.40; spring lambs, $7@9.25, Hogs—Steady at $8.90@9.10.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE. PORT OF RICHMOND, MAY 30, 1913.

ARRIVED.

Steamer Berkeley, Shelly, Norfolk, merchandlse and passengers, Old Dominion Line.

Steamer Aurora, Furman, Petersburg and James River landings, merchandlse and passengers, Furman Line. SAILED.

SAILED.

Steamer Berkeley, Shelly, Norfolk, merchandlise and passengers, Old Dominion Line. Steamer Pocahontas, Graves, Norfolk and James River landings, merchandlise and passengers, Virginia Navigation Company, Steamer Aurora, Furman, Petersburg and James River landings, merchandlise and passengers, Furman Line.

Schooner J. R. Moffett, E. H. Evans, James Place. River, light.
Barge Balley, O'Brien, Bermuda Hundred,

The exercises were brief. Headmaster S. M. Reed presented diplomas to a class of eight. They were Joseph H. Hardson, of Fayetteville, first honor man; Hugh H. Boggs, of West Virginia; Robert Gordon Reed, of South Carolina; Beverley G. Stowe, of Rockingham; Scovill Wannamaker, of South Carolina; William C. Glover, R. Gayle Nimocks, and Noel E. Paton, of Fayetteville.

All the medals were presented by R. W. Pierring. The scholarship medal was woo by Lae Edward Cooper, with an average of 96 for the year; the drill medal was presented to Hugh H. Boggs, while the attendance prizes went to Edward Cooper and Charles Hutaff. Excellent records were made by Edwird Cooper, Caldwell Hiske, and Jenilings Pemberton, all members of the second class.

River, light.

Barge Balley, O'Brien, Bermuda Hundred, light.

Barge Cayuga, James River, light,

Barge Cayuga

You began to save for the vacation which is coming later in life-OLD AGE. A savings account will insure a happy vacation when work

#₽%90%00}₹00%00%q#

First National Bank Ninth and Main.

Capital and Surplus, $8,000,000. 8% Savings Department 3%

A strong, safe bank with conveniently located offices.

Commonwealth Bank

Right in the Centre of the Shopping District.

Broadway National Bank

vate bureaus were as high as 85, com

First and Broad Sts.

pared with the ten-year average of 79.9, it cannot be said that any great amount of cotton was sold short on it. amount of cotton was soid short on it. The holidays in the American markets at the end of this week and the beginning of next had the effect of restricting operations, and on the whole bears preferred to cover commitments rather than to enter into new ventures. Reports from the cotton helt